

Please apply stricter standards for National Air Tours and for vintage jet operations. We live in a world that has changed considerably in the last few years and I believe stricter standards are merited. Many folks have the pocket change to buy into a rather accessible "hobby" and I believe they will have to bear the expense. Respectably, Jill K Nelson